Jens is currently Global Head of Market & Competitive Intelligence at Ciba, a 6.4bil CHF global Specialty Chemicals Corporation.

In this function he has conceptualized, developed and deployed Ciba's global intelligence network of tools, processes, methodologies to support best in class information gathering, data acquisition, intelligence transformation, market research & analysis activities as well as business and strategic planning cycles.

In 2006 Jens joined the Swiss Competitive Intelligence Association (SCIA) of which he became a member of the board in 2007. A frequent speaker and published author on the subject of Competitive Intelligence he was elected for a term from 2009-2011 to the Board of Directors of the Society of Competitive Intelligence Professionals (SCIP), the global association for 3'000+ intelligence practitioners, consultants and scholars.

Starting January 2009 Jens became the Chairman of SCIP's International Advisory Committee in pursuit to transform the association to a truly global organization.

In his 20 years with Ciba he performed successfully leadership roles both at the Swiss global headquarters as well as in the US in Marketing Communications, Sales, Marketing, E-Business, Electronic Communications and Market Development.

Jens is also a published writer of short stories and poems and a founder and owner of various web sites, partly dedicated to competitive intelligence.
